

The Academy of Forensic Medical Sciences (AFMS)

Diploma Course in Management of the Dead

3–28 July 2023

The course aims to provide knowledge of the main aspects related to the proper management of deceased persons in all circumstances and environments.

Lecture topics will include legal aspects of:

- managing of the deceased,
- procedures for the recognition of life extinct
- custodial deaths
- organ donation and transplantation
- deaths in healthcare environments
- indoor and outdoor deaths
- and many more.

For further details an application form visit: www.afms.org.uk/managementofthedead